Federal Acquisition Regulation
FAR

- The FAR is the primary regulation for use by all Federal Executive agencies in their acquisition of supplies and services with appropriated funds.
- The Federal Acquisition Regulations System is established for the codification and publication of uniform policies and procedures for acquisition by all executive agencies.
FAR

- FAR Part 6 Competition Requirements
- FAR Part 9 Contractor Qualifications
- FAR Part 10 Market Research
- FAR Part 13 Simplified Acquisition Procedures
- FAR Part 16 Types of Contracts
- FAR Part 19 Small Business Programs
- FAR Part 30 & 31 Cost Accounting Standards
- FAR Part 32 Contract Financing
- FAR Part 33 Protests, Disputes and Appeals
- FAR Part 52.2- Clauses
The Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) is the codification of the general and permanent rules published in the Federal Register by the executive departments and agencies of the Federal Government. It is divided into 50 titles that represent broad areas subject to Federal regulation. Each volume of the CFR is updated once each calendar year and is issued on a quarterly basis.
Each title is divided into chapters, which usually bear the name of the issuing agency.

- Title 13 – U.S. Small Business Administration
- Title 32 – National Defense
  - 32 CFR 1 – Office of the Secretary of Defense
  - 32 CFR 400 – Department of the Army
  - 32 CFR 700 – Department of the Navy
  - 32 CFR 800 – Department of the Air Force
- Title 38 – Department of Veteran Affairs
- Title 48 – Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR)
The Federal Acquisition System will

- Satisfy the customer in terms of cost, quality, and timeliness of the delivered product or service by, for example --
  - Maximizing the use of commercial products and services;
  - Using contractors who have a track record of successful past performance or who demonstrate a current superior ability to perform; and
  - Promoting competition;
- Minimize administrative operating costs;
- Conduct business with integrity, fairness, and openness; and
- Fulfill public policy objectives.
